March 3 Public Library, New Milford 6 -8 pm

March 4 First Church, Windsor 7-9 pm

March 5 New Haven Museum, New Haven 7-9 pm

March 30 Shaw Mansion, New London 7-9 pm

The Vermont-based Preservation Education Institute is bringing its popular program on Wooden Window Repair to Connecticut for a four-stop tour in March. Whether you are an owner, contractor, craftsperson, architect or someone who just loves old windows, join us for an informative program on the steps for historic wooden window repair.

This session provides an overview of how to restore historic wood windows authentically and safely. The learning objectives include the following:

- ✓ Describe the process of wooden window restoration.
- ✓ List steps to remove paint and glazing safely.
- ✓ Hire and communicate with contractors and craftspeople to restore windows with confidence.
- ✓ Use reference materials cited in the course for ongoing education and guidance.
